

Seeking Executive Pastor--The Church at Litchfield Park, a historic “house of prayer for all people” located in beautiful Litchfield Park, Arizona, is seeking an Executive Pastor willing to utilize their experience and talents in serving the Kingdom of God. CLP is a dynamic multi-generational community church which celebrates its diversity in unity. The candidate we are seeking should have a Master of Divinity degree or equivalent and be ordained by a recognized Christian denomination. A strong administrative background in a church, parachurch or secular business with a proven ability to lead and direct staff is desired. The Executive Pastor will report directly to the Sr. Pastor and team with him to carry out the daily operations of the church. Experience in preaching in a contemporary or liturgical setting is required; experience in both settings a plus. An understanding of audio/visual technology, web technology and/or facilities management all will add to a candidate’s desirability. The compensation package is $65,000 – 75,000 depending on experience. The position is available immediately and will remain open until filled. Qualified applicants should submit their resume, a letter of interest and any other pertinent information to: clppastorsearch@cox.net ; only electronic applications will be accepted.
