WELCOME & OPENING PRAYER Rev. Lynne Kammeraad

LITANY Rev. Kerri Sandusky

L: Loving God, the framers of our Declaration of Independence claimed that you have endowed us with inalienable rights to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness.

P: This week we remember all those who have served in our country's armed forces to preserve the freedoms you have granted us.

L: For the men and women who serve in the Air Force, Army, Navy, Marine Corps, and Coast Guard, we ask your blessing.

P: For the family members who have made great sacrifices in order to make it possible for their service members to be on watch at home or around the world or to go into harm's way, we ask your blessing.

L: For the families who grieve the death of a member who went in harm's way, never to return, we ask your blessing.

P: For all veterans who have been willing to lay down their lives for us, we ask your blessing.

L: For the veterans of past wars who bear scars in their bodies and spirits, we ask your blessing.

P: For veterans who came home and struggled in different ways, we ask your blessing.

L: Keep all our veterans in your care today. Grant them the peace they sought to preserve for others.

P: As we honor our veterans, we also pray for peace. Teach all your people the ways of peace that those who have sacrificed so much for peace and freedom will not have done so in vain.
